ANNUAL REPORT - 2022-2023

With deep sadness and heavy hearts, the organization team members heard sad message of the death of our most sincere member, Mrs. Sandhya Singh, who deaprted on 16th December 2022. All members express grief and condolence for the family and shall always miss her more than words can express.

Jayati Bharatam since 2005 is the only organisation in Uttar Pradesh which is providing free of cost boarding and lodging facility at its residential campus with its own resources to those who are deprived of getting apposite education or have left studies due to lack of the special need educational materials, resources ect., so that the Divyanjan's from different parts of the country can easily get access to integrated schooling facility.

The organisation in was registered in 2007 under Society Registration Act and consistently since then from 17 Years it is providing free boarding lodging facility and integrated education to divyangjans residing in the premises of Jayati bharatam and home-based education to home bound divyanjans through its Special Educators.

Our duty as an organisation is to make journey of Divyangjan's a bit easy by endless efforts so that they get a path and lead their life.

“WE LIKE A CHARIOTEER LEAD THEM TO THEIR PATHWAYS FOR A BETTER LIFE.”

Organisation's Integrated Schooling Facility Programme

Moving with cause at present approx. 100 (hundred) students from different districts of Uttar Pradesh and other States are receiving integrated schooling facility at our campus. The organization focuses on overall development of children by arranging various trainings for children giving them a step ahead to move forward with a new start.

In session 2022-23 nearly 100 students from various districts are residing in the hostel and are receiving integrated education in schools and colleges of Lucknow.
